RE-ADVERTISEMENT OF INTERNATIONAL LEGAL CONSULTANT

GENERAL BACKGROUND:

Under the applicable law, and in accordance with the terms of the Agreement between the United Nations and the Royal Government of Cambodia, the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC) has jurisdiction to try senior leaders and those who were most responsible for the crimes and serious violations of Cambodian penal law, international humanitarian law and custom, and international conventions recognized by Cambodia, during the period of the Khmer Rouge regime from 17 April 1975 to 6 January 1979.

While the ECCC is established as a national Court, the Royal Government of Cambodia sought the technical assistance of the United Nations in operating the court. In Resolution A/57/228 and A/57/228B, the General Assembly approved the involvement of the United Nations and endorsed the agreement outlining the arrangements between the two parties. The United Nations Assistance to the Khmer Rouge Trials (UNAKRT) was established in 2005 to provide on-going technical, operational and logistical support to the Royal Government of Cambodia in all aspect of the Court's operations.

OBJECTIVES:

This assignment is required in view of the overall goal of completing the current appeals brought to the Pre-Trial Chamber including potential appeals against closing orders, in accordance with the ECCC Completion Plan.

SCOPE OF WORK:

Under the direct supervision of the International Judges, the incumbent will carry out the following responsibilities:

- Provide the necessary legal support to the Pre-Trial Chamber as required;
- Conduct research and draft research papers on a wide range of legal issues in criminal law and procedure (international and Cambodian), international law, international humanitarian law and other areas of specialization using multiple research sources;

- Draft legal opinions on issues raised in appeals, applications and disagreements submitted to the Chamber and present findings for internal review in either written or oral form;
- Attend hearings and deliberations and draft summaries of submissions and written records of proceedings;
- Assist in the drafting of decisions, review translation and proof-read all documents issued by the Chamber to ensure compliance with the applicable rules;
- Assist the International Judges in their day-to-day work in terms of both administrative and procedural functions.
- Perform any other assignments as required.

Results Expected: Good legal research, analysis and presentation of key information to facilitate decision-making. Deliver well-reasoned and clearly written recommendations, legal memoranda, orders and decisions. Perform accurate evidence analysis and draft clear and well-reasoned sections of any judgement related to closing orders. Apply all appropriate policies, guidelines, procedures and processes. Interact effectively and harmoniously with colleagues and concerned parties.

EXPECTED OUTPUTS AND DELIVERABLES:

Deliverables/Output	Target due date	Review and Approvals Required
